Private & Peaceful ~ In the Cupertino Foothills

This 2-story, comfortable, remodeled home blends easily into its natural environment. Enjoy lush, mature trees, the smell of rosemary, sage, lavender and numerous other flowers, shrubs and herbs. Sit on your own private balcony and listen to your own babbling brook. Stunning views of treetops and the hillsides from all second-story windows and balcony.

Bright and airy, this home comes with oak hardwood floors throughout, gas fireplace with marble surround, 6-burner gas oven with double stove, wood bay window in the living room and two Anderson french doors which lead to the private backyard.

Located in the most desirable multimillion dollar neighborhood with many new and newer homes. There is room to expand the house or build new - up to 45% of the lot. Within walking or bike-riding distance to Cupertino's finest schools and a short distance to shopping and highways 85 and 280.
